Congress designated the 74,401-acre Mount Evans Wilderness in 1980, as an area “where the earth and community of life are untrammeled by man, where himself is a visitor who does not remain.”

~ Wilderness Act, September 1, 1964