2. Camping within 200 feet of any occupied campsite, designated trail, or water source.
3. Throwing garbage into streams or lakes.
4. Riding horses on trails or in areas not designated for equestrian use.
5. Disturbing wildlife or nature while camping.
6. Killing or capturing wildlife.
7. Using fireworks.
8. Disturbing the natural environment.

LEAVE NO TRACE

PLAN AHEAD AND PREPARE - Know before you go! Learn everything you can about this area you plan to visit and the regulations for its use.

TRAVEL AND CARRY ON DURABLE SURFACES - Use maintained campgrounds and trails, where available. Avoid sites just beginning to show impacts. Keep camps small and of least 500 feet from water, campgrounds, and trails.

DISPOSE WASTE PROPERLY - Pack it in, pack it out. Barren forest walks in a suitcase. 5/8 inches away and at least 200 feet from water. Wash yourself and your dishes away from water sources.

LEAVE WHAT YOU FIND - Do not damage, deface, or remove natural objects or cultural artifacts. Leave them for others to enjoy. Don't built structures, dig hole, or anchor ropes to trees.

RESPECT THE SILENCE - Quietly enjoy the peace and solitude of the wilderness.

WEAR AND USE INPUTS - Protective gear such as a hat, sunscreen, and sunglasses. Dress suitable for weather conditions.

RESPECT WILDLIFE - Watch wildlife from a distance and never approach. Feed or follow it. Don't feed wildlife and don't get close to bears or other predators.

BE CONSIDERATE OF OTHER VISITORS - Don't disturb others. Preserve the natural quiet. When you visit the wilderness you are not the only one out there.

Please help us protect the High Uintas Wilderness... LEAVE NO TRACE!

An area where the earth and its community of life are untrammeled by man, where man himself is a visitor who does not remain.
