Leave No Trace
Camp Away From Water

Why It Matters
Camping too close to water threatens water quality, displaces wildlife, damages fragile wetland plant communities, and spoils the view for other visitors. Camp at least 200 feet away from all water sources.

USDA FOREST SERVICE
Ashley National Forest
Wasatch-Cache National Forest