ATTENTION SNOWMOBILERS!!

DO NOT SNOWMOBILE IN THE WILDERNESS!

- Please respect the wilderness boundary. Snowmobiling and all other motorized vehicles are NOT allowed in the wilderness.
- Snowmobile trespass into the wilderness could jeopardize the Main Boulder snowmobile grooming program.
- It is your responsibility to know your location at all times.
- The wilderness boundary is marked in some locations (but not all!) by boundary signs.

For more information on current conditions, maps, etc. contact:
Big Timber Ranger District at (406) 932-5155
For avalanche information call (406) 587-6981.

GIVE WINTERING WILDLIFE PLENTY OF SPACE!

- Observe wildlife from a distance.
- Even a small disturbance to wintering wildlife can cause stress, depleting critical energy reserves and reducing survival chances.
- Do not approach wildlife. Please use spotting scopes or binoculars to observe wintering wildlife.
