

WILDERNESS STEWARD APPLICATION

NAME
MAILING ADDRESS
PHONES HOME & WORK
E-MAIL

EMERGENCY CONTACT PERSON and PHONE

OUTDOOR ORGANIZATION AFFILIATION (optional)

Check the activities that interest you:

Overnight backcountry patrols with visitor contacts		Presenting "Leave No Trace" and wilderness education programs
Day trip patrols with visitor contacts		Site restoration
Inventory sites		Data entry – Computer work
Grant writing for restoration or stewardship activities

Check the modes of wilderness travel that you have used in column A and rate your expertise in column B:

	A	B
Hiking – Day
Hiking – Backpacking
Hiking with llamas or goats
Hiking with mules and horses
Equestrian – Day riding
Equestrian – Pack in

- Rating: 0 – no experience
1 – have done but need coaching
2 – can do with confidence and independently
3 – high degree of experience, verging on expert

Go to page 2

Rate your skill level for the following:

First Aid and CPR		Wilderness Act and policy
2 – way radio operation		“Leave No Trace” principles
Map and compass travel off trail		Explaining regulations to the public
Reading topographical maps		Communicating with diverse people
Mountaineering		Native plant ID
Search and rescue		Trail Maintenance

- Rating: 0 – no experience
1 – have done but need coaching
2 – can do with confidence and independently
3 – high degree of experience, verging on expert

Commitment Level:

We are asking that a Wilderness Steward who wants to patrol, commit to 4 weekends (or mid-week equivalent of 8 days) between Memorial Day weekend and late September plus the training (one evening, one day).

Can you make this level of commitment?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	Yes	No

Additional Training:

Are there any areas in which you would like to receive specific training?

Return to : Jon Nakae
Mt. Adams Ranger District
2455 Hwy 141
Trout Lake, WA 98650
Fax (509) 395-9384